What makes a desert a desert? If you were asked to name a typical desert, which one would you choose?

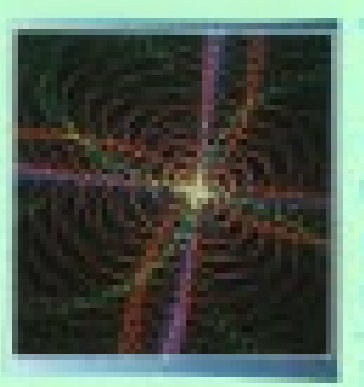

The world around us is amazingly complex. Contemplating the infinite intricacy of the natural world, biologist Frank Egler observed that "organisms are not only more complex than we think but more complex than we can think."

DEFINING SWIMMABILITY

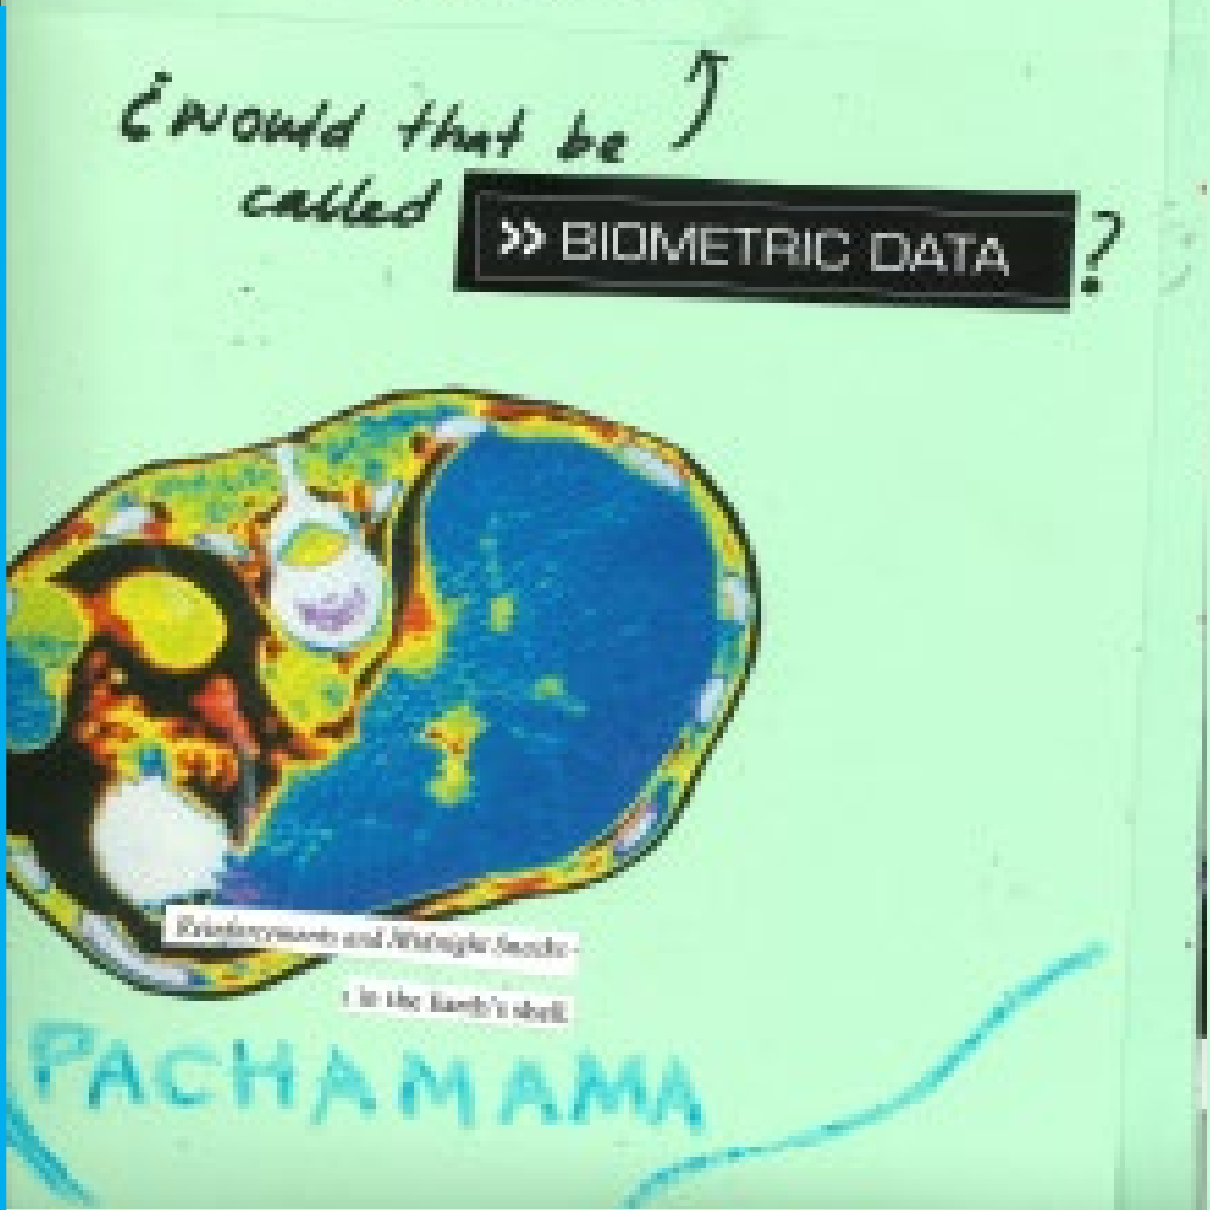

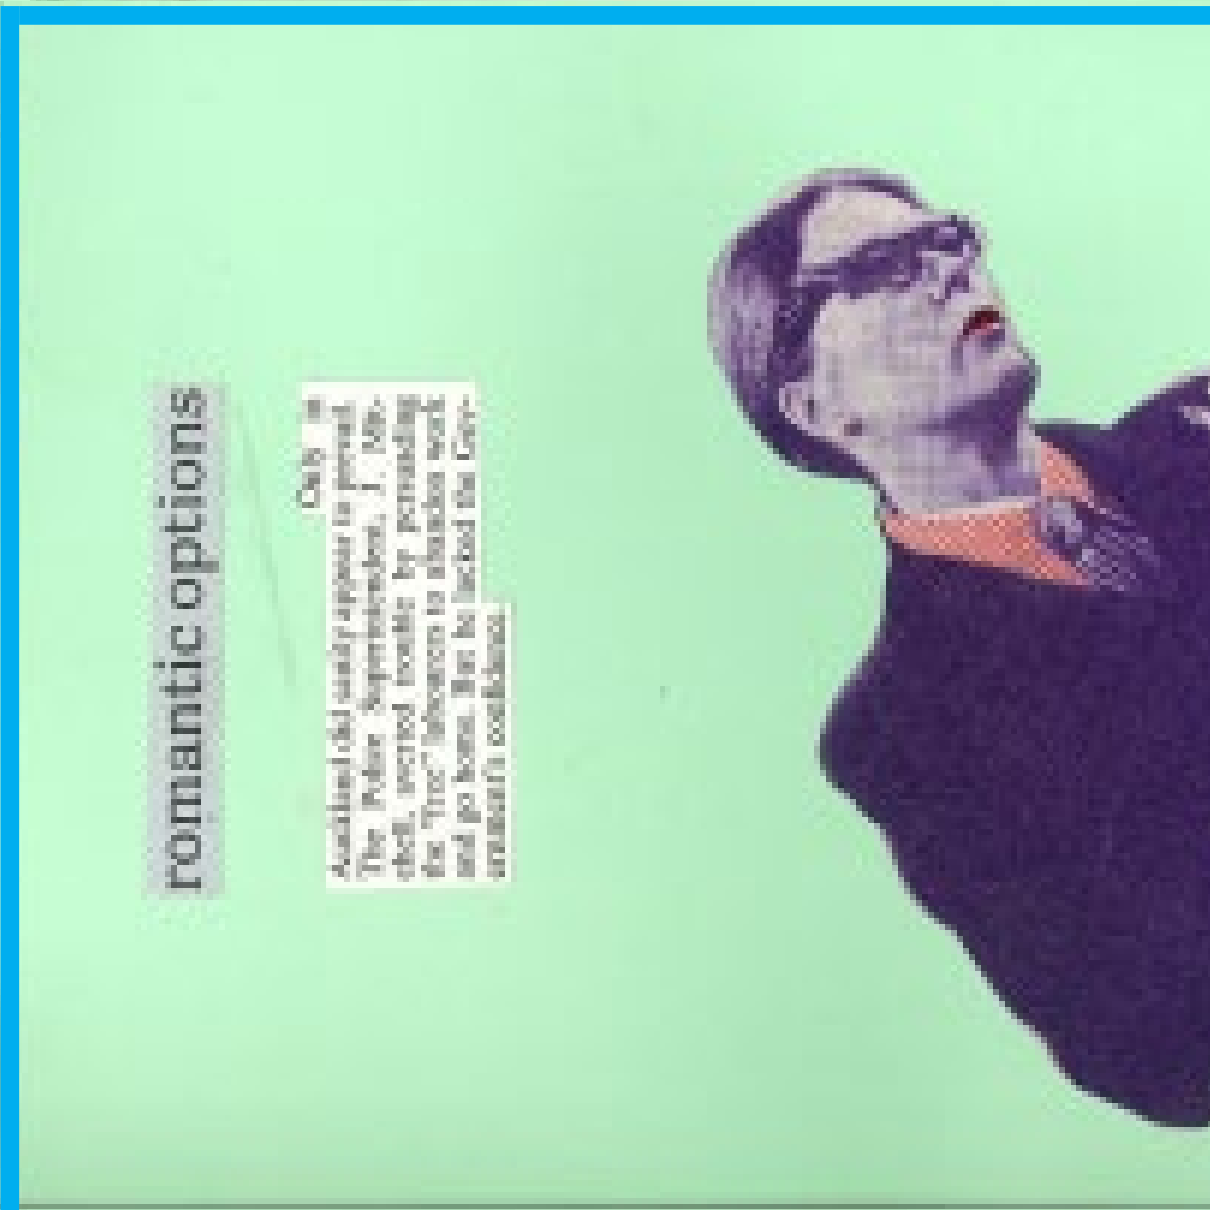

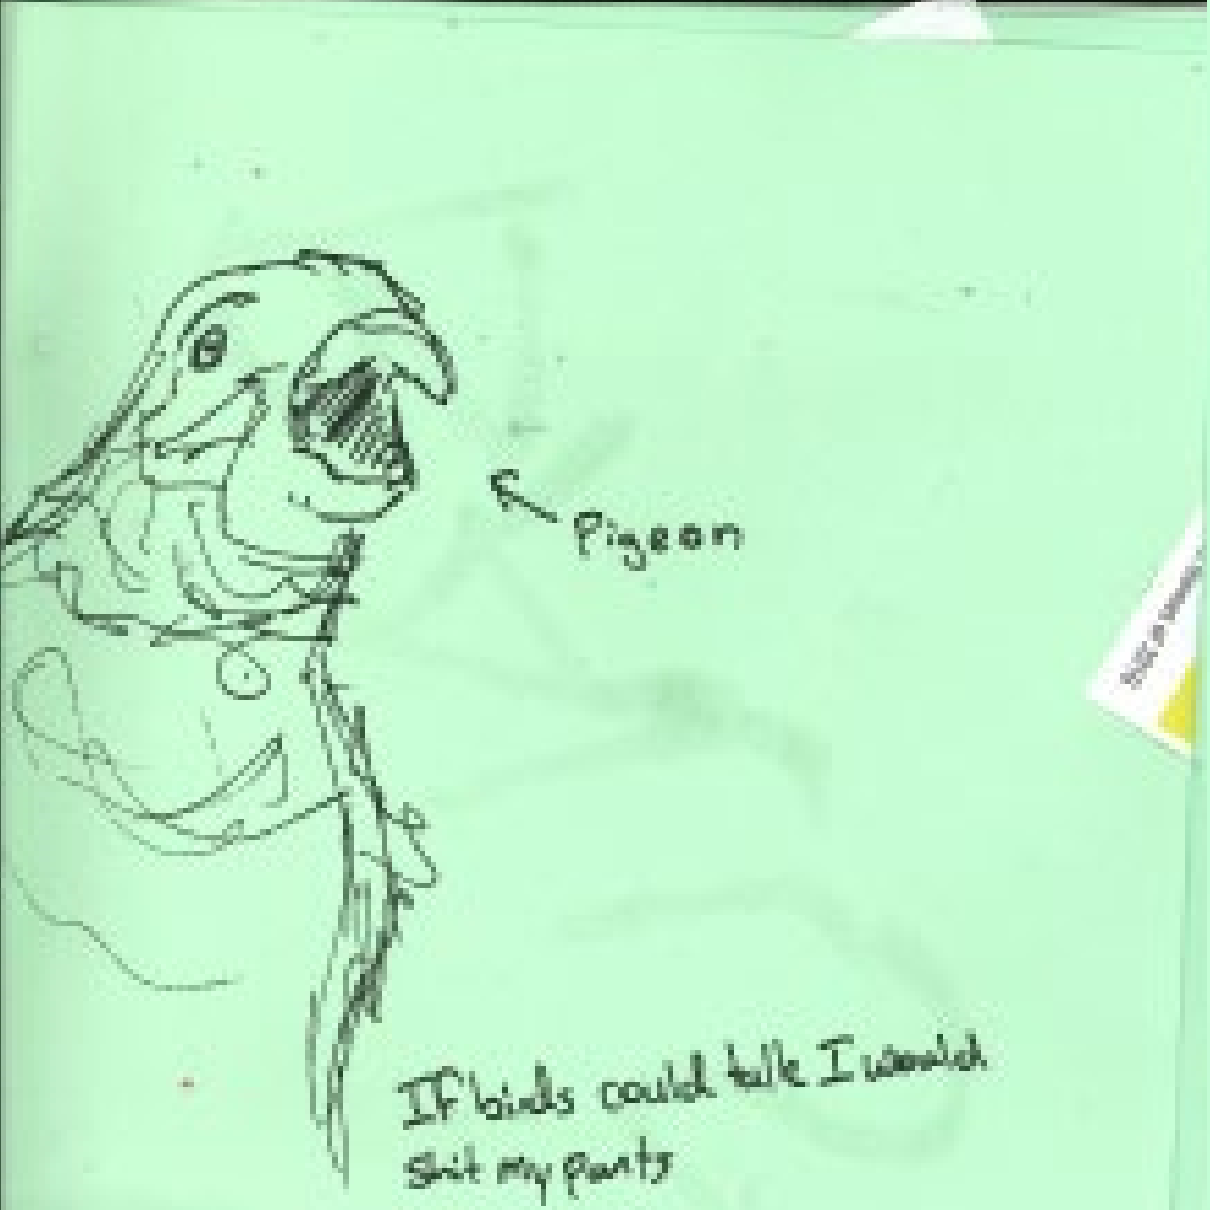

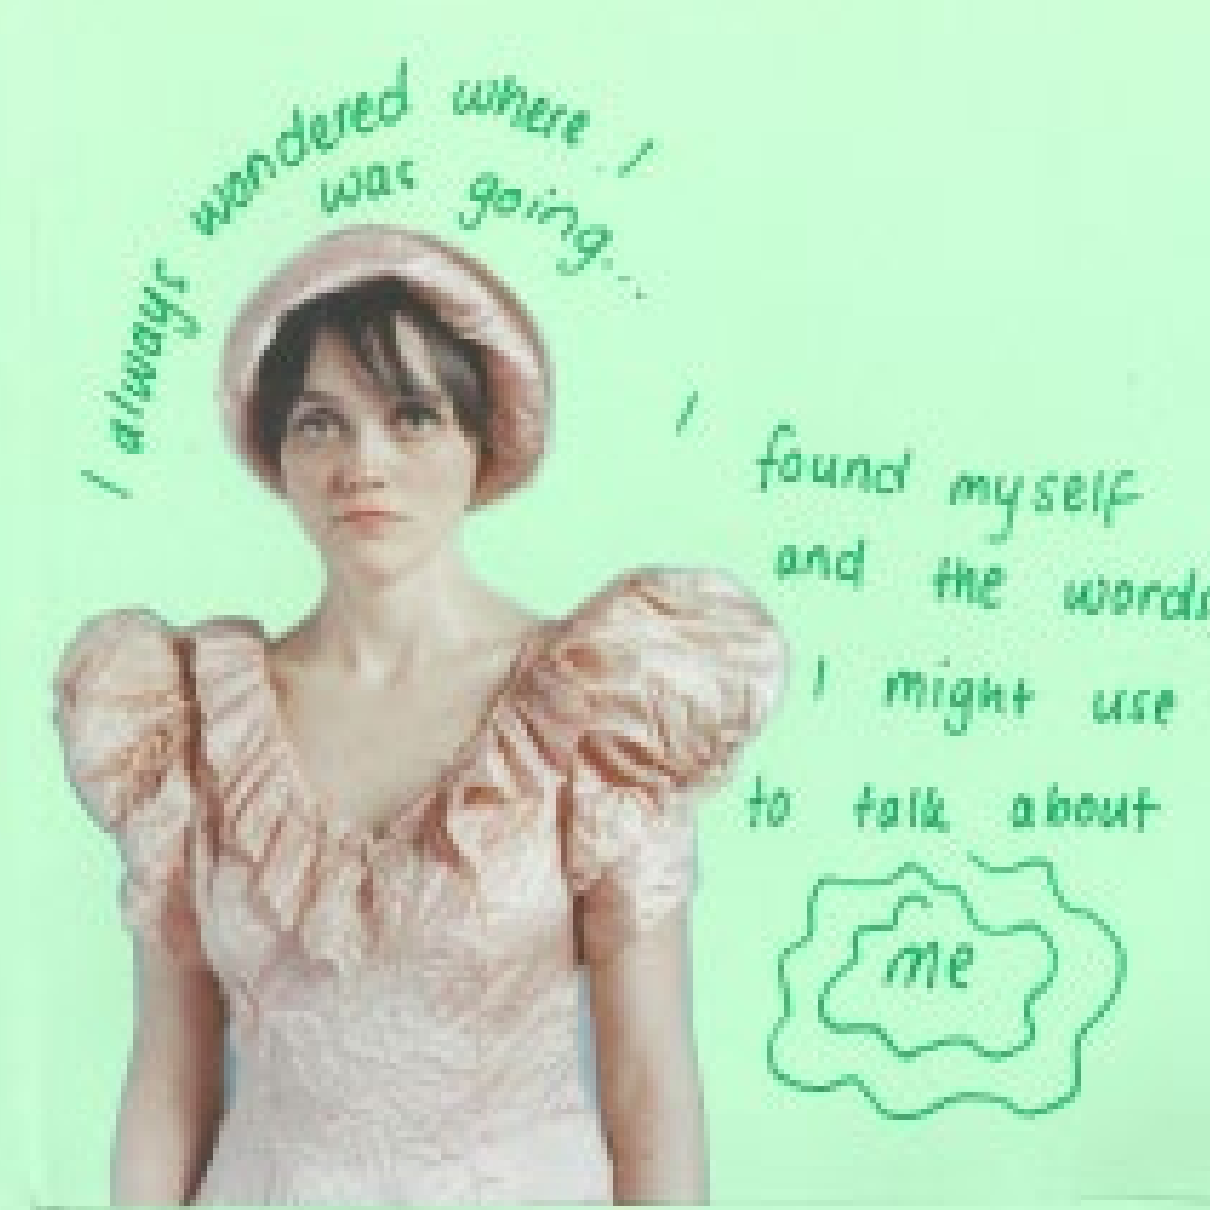

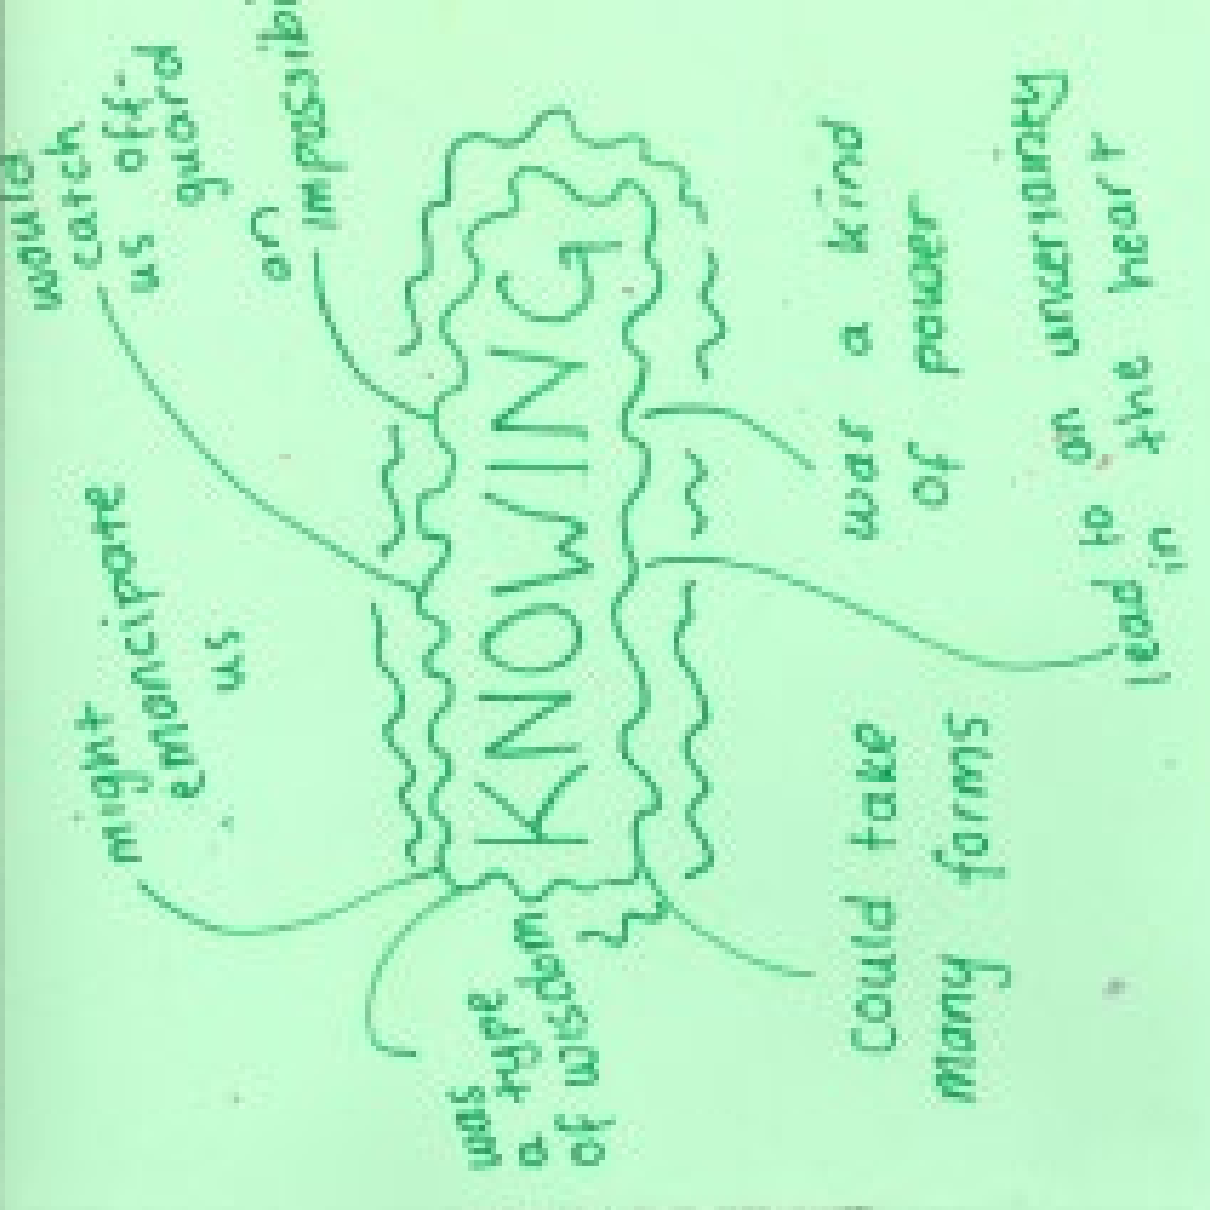

"YOU DON'T SWIM!
SWAMP! YOU'RE A GARD,
AND WHEN PEOPLE
GO FRODO TO GREAT
GARD."

"Myth is an arrangement of the past, whether real or imagined, in patterns that reinforce a culture's deepest values and aspirations. . . . Myths are so freight with meaning that we live and die by them.
They are the maps by which cultures navigate through time."

Where did we come from?
How did it all begin?

THE MILITARY INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX PERSISTS AND SURVEILLANCE DOWN TO OUR BIO METRIC DATA COMPELS COMPLIANCE. WHAT DOES RESISTANCE LOOK LIKE UNDER THESE CONDITIONS? WHAT ARE DOES IT LOOK LIKE WHEN WE ARE STRAGGLING TO FIND DRINKING WATER, AND YET ALL OUR HOMES ARE FLOODING?

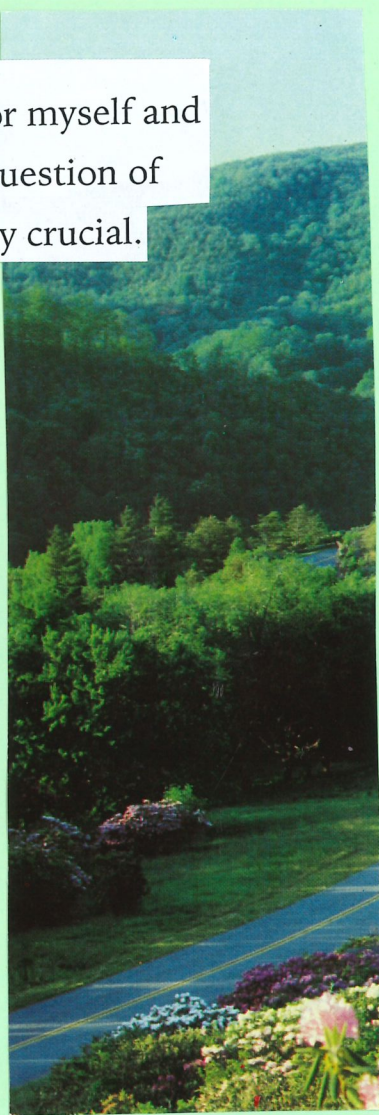

This is one of the reasons why, for myself and a number of my colleagues, the question of political organisation is absolutely crucial.

If you were to go to many of the beaches along the south coast of Britain hoping to lie on golden sands and swim in crystal clear waters, the chances are that you would soon find your clothes caked with sticky black tar-like material and you would be swimming in dirty brown water.

From every country, millions of litres of sewage pour into the sea (some of it via the rivers), some of it treated and some of it not, but this is not the only way in which the sea is made dirty.

I STARED AT THESE EYES MORE ALIVE THAN MY DAUGHTER'S. HER EYES HAD BEEN, ABSOLUTELY TERRIFIED WITH KNOWLEDGE. AND I REALIZED I COULDN'T LET THIS GECKO KISS ME IN AN UNPROTECTED, UNDEFENDED, THAT WOULD NEVER REMEMBER THE GECKO FOR ANYTHING OUTSIDE OF MY SURVIVAL INSTINCTS. SO I UNLEASHED FOR THE GECKO, AND I RAN AWAY FROM MY PULCRITING HAND AND TOWARDS ITS TWO LIGHT-FILLED ORBS. I WANDERED WITH THE TOXIC UNCLE LIKE TO IT. I WANTED TO SEE THE WORLD THROUGH THE GECKO'S EYES, MESSY TO SEE, COULDN'T GO HOME TO AN EMPTY HOUSE - NOT EVEN A GECKO THIS TIME, JUST THE EMPTINESS OF CAMOUFLAGED AMIDST THE LEAVES.

MY UNBROKEN CAP WAS CUT BY UNFEELING, CLINICAL STRENGTH AS SOON AS MY DAUGHTER WAS GONE. I DIDN'T FEEL IT. I HARDLY REMEMBER IT. I FELT A FAMILIAR SPACE IN MY CHEST BETWEEN LOS AND RECAST. I SCRAWLED THE FOREST FLOOR AND WANDERED FOR THE FIRST TIME, IF I HAD MADE A MISTAKE.
